60 MINUTES

- 05/07/00 "The Colonel's Wife"- an interview with Laurie Hiett, a cocaine addict serving a five-year prison term for smuggling cocaine and heroin into the U.S. from Colombia, where her husband, U.S. Army Colonel James Hiett, was in charge of the U.S. efforts to halt the flow of illegal drugs from Colombia into the U.S. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
"The Right That Could Be Wrong"- 25 years ago the Supreme Court gave the mentally ill the right to refuse treatment unless they were an imminent danger to themselves or others. Recently New York State, prompted by the killing of a young woman by a man who was off his anti-psychotic medication, passed Kendra's Law which allows a court to order forced medication. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis)
"The Bicycle Thief"- California's three strikes law puts third-time offenders, even non-violent ones, in jail for 25-years-to-life. Critics say the law is unjust and cost-ineffective because it has filled state prisons with petty criminals. Proponents claim that it is the only effective way to remove repeat offenders from society. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Junk" - things people throw out
- 05/14/00 "Who Killed Malcolm X?"- a meeting between Malcolm X's eldest daughter, Attalah Shabazz and Louis Farrakhan. Farrakhan admits that editorials he wrote criticizing Malcolm X may have instigated the assassins who ended her father's life 35 years ago. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jay Kernis)
"The Seamy Side Of Paradise"- Monsignor Richard Albert, a Catholic missionary from the Bronx, was assigned to the Caribbean island of Jamaica 24 years ago. Monsignor Albert chose to minister to the slums of Kingston and has as his goal the education of young people so that they can find employment and escape the influence of criminal gangs. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)
"Ready, Willing & Able"- a report on George McDonald and Ready, Willing & Able, a program he founded to help homeless men in New York City. The program, sponsored by the Doe Fund, puts the men, many with criminal records and almost all with histories of drug abuse, to work, provides room and board, and even educates them. (C: Morley Safer - P: Alden Bourne)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Mother's Day" - why it is celebrated
- 05/21/00 "Bishop Spong"- an interview with Episcopal Bishop Jack Spong of the Diocese of Newark, New Jersey, who talks about his unorthodox and often controversial approach to preaching Christianity, including his viewpoints on the crucifixion of Christ and the ordination of homosexual priests. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
"Kevin Mitnick, Cyber-Thief"- once the FBI's most wanted computer criminal, Kevin Mitnick stole corporate secrets by hacking his way into the computer systems of the world's biggest corporations. Mitnick claims that he isn't a thief but an electronic joyrider who was guilty of invasion of privacy but who made no personal gain from his transgression. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky) (OAD: 01/23/00)
"Carlos Acosta's Story"- an interview with Cuban ballet dancer Carlos Acosta. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)
